ARTICLE IV-BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.1: COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD.

The government and policy-making responsibilities of the Sealy Chamber of Commerce shall be vested in the Board of Directors, which shall control its property, its finances and direct its affairs.

The Board of Directors of the Chamber shall be composed of fifteen (15) directors, approximately one-third (1/3) of which are to be elected annually to serve for terms of three (3) years or until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. Five (5) directors shall be elected annually (5/5/5). A director shall be eligible to serve up to two full three (3) year consecutive terms. The retiring President shall become eligible to serve as an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors for a period on one-year following his/her term of office as President.

A. NOMINATING COMMITTEE:

Each year, before the November Board of Directors meeting, the President shall appoint, subject to approval of the Board of Directors, a nominating committee of three (3) members of the board. The President shall designate the chairman of the committee and shall serve as ex-officio member of the committee.

Before the November meeting of the Board of Directors, the nominating committee shall present to the Board of Directors the slate of candidates eligible to serve 3-year terms to the Board of Directors for the purpose of replacing the outgoing directors whose regular terms have expired. Each candidate for a 3-year directorship must be an active Chamber member willing to accept the responsibility of the 3-year directorship.

B. PUBLICITY OF NOMINATIONS:

Upon approval of the report of the nominating committee by the Board of Directors, the President shall, as expeditiously as possible, notify the membership of the names of persons nominated as candidates for directors, as well as the rights of the membership with respect to nomination by petition.

C. Write In Candidates

Candidate written in on a ballot will be accepted.

D. JUDGES OF ELECTION:

The president shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, at least three (3) but not more than six (6), election judges who are members of the Chamber, but who are not candidates for the election to the office of director. Such election judges shall have complete supervision of the election, including the auditing of the ballots and the reporting of the results of the election to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.2: SEATING OF NEW DIRECTORS.

All newly elected Board members will take their oath of office and be installed at the January meeting and shall be participating members thereafter.

SECTION 4.3: VACANCIES.

If a voting member of the Board is absent from three (3) consecutive Board meetings, the Board position is automatically vacated, unless the Board member is specifically excused by a majority of the Board of Directors. The President of the Board shall make appointments to fill vacancies on the Board. The Board of Directors must approve appointments by a majority of votes. On second absence, the Board of Director will be notified.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

SECTION 5.1: DETERMINATION OF OFFICERS.

The Board of Directors at its regular January meeting shall reorganize for the coming year.
